

HP's Imaging & Printing Experience Center
Take selling to the next level

Helping you market
& sell

There are a number of marketing services partners that specialize in helping our imaging and printing partners create awareness, preference, demand and closed sales for their businesses. We are featuring some of these partners who understand HP, our Imaging and Printing products, programs and priorities, and your business as a partner of HP.

Marketing Services

The HP MDF Blitz Experience is a one day, activity-based sales training program that empowers salespeople to schedule appointments with qualified decision makers the day of the training, resulting in a pipeline full of new opportunities at the end of the day!
